

oxford riverside glamping

LOCAL TRAIL GUIDE

	MILES	KM
The circular route	7	11.3
To The White Hart and back	4.8	7.7
To The Trout and back	7.8	12.5

1855 sketch of Eynsham's flash lock.

To Eynsham Village

In Medieval times, before the bridge, a ferryman took travellers across, paid in bread and beer!

Swinford Toll Bridge

The wooden flash lock was the last on the Thames to be replaced by a modern 'pound lock' in 1928

Eynsham Lock

Swinford means 'swine ford' or 'pig crossing'

OXFORD RIVERSIDE GLAMPING

In 1636, 2800 of 'ship tax' (about £130,000 today) was lost in a river crossing - our very own sunken treasure!

To Farmoor Reservoir

To Oxford

Pick fresh blackberries all down the river in summer

Many people live on the Thames in boats with creative styles and names

From us to The Trout is 2% of the total Thames Path from source to mouth

At the fallen white tree you're about 3/4 of the way

When Wytham Hill wears a cap, Farmers all, beware of that!

At this point the path comes out into open fields

Fallow Muntjac
Three types of deer can be spotted
Roe

Scientists monitor around 1200 birdboxes in the woods - how many can you spot?

Go under the main road

The pub is near a red telephone box

THE WHITE HART PUB

Wytham Village

A wildlife research base for Oxford University

The Chalet

Wytham Studio

A visual arts research studio

Wytham Woods Trail

The woods have the densest badger population anywhere in Britain

Sawmill

Highwaymen used to be a regular hazard along this trail

Godstow
THE TROUT INN

To Oxford